Le Thi Khanh Hoan joined Indochine Counsel in October 2006. She has advised on foreign investment, corporate & commercial transactions, taxation and employment issues for companies doing business in Vietnam. She has assisted various foreign companies to set up subsidiaries, branch offices and representative offices. She is also experienced in advising corporate clients and foreign contractors in compliance and regulatory issues.

After graduating from Hanoi Law University, Hoan practiced law at a major local law firm for six years before she joined Indochine Counsel. She has gained substantial experience in corporate & commercial work, licensing matters, labour and taxation issues. She has acted for a number of foreign companies in labour disputes.

Recently, Hoan assisted a foreign bank set up a branch office in Ho Chi Minh City and advised a leading chemical company in restructuring its representative offices and operations in Vietnam as a result of offshore acquisition of the parent company.

Key clients she has assisted and advised include: Yahoo! Asia Pacific, Commonwealth Bank of Australia, East Guardian Asset Management, Visa International, Agilent Technologies, S. Oliver Overseas Limited, The Johns Hopkins University, Lasta Multimedia JSC, Avaya, Convergys, GFK Asia, Novo Nordisk, Lee Kum Kee, University College of Northern Denmark, PT Dextra Medica, and Ikea (Hong Kong) Trading Ltd.
