Nguyen Thi Hong Duong is a Senior Associate at Indochine Counsel, where she leads the firm's Taxation practice. Since joining in March 2009, she has developed a strong reputation for advising on foreign and offshore investment, corporate and commercial matters, taxation, banking and finance, and employment issues for businesses operating in Vietnam.

Duong's expertise is underpinned by over 12 years of experience in finance, accounting, and taxation, including more than a decade as Chief Accountant for Japanese companies. This deep financial background uniquely positions her to navigate complex legal and regulatory challenges.

Before joining Indochine Counsel, Duong worked at VILAF for approximately three years. She has advised and assisted key clients including: Shell Group, Unilever Vietnam, BYG Projects (Malaysia), Global Food Technologies, Prudential, BNP Paribas, Fujita Corporation (Japan), BDO Group (Malaysia), Fashion Garment Group, Victoria Healthcare, SingHealth (Singapore), Crown Packaging (Singapore), Tien Wah Group (Malaysia and Singapore), CNA & HTE, Macro Hong Kong, Chemical Cosfa, Hospitality Marketing Consultants, Convergys, Fresenius Kabi AG, Drake & Scull (UAE), Dr. Com Asia (France), Posco Group, DTZ Debenham Tie Leung (India), Delfi Technologies, Mega Lifesciences Group (Thailand), Trainor Asia, Royal Lee (HongKong), Taicera Keraben (Spain), BP Solution, Canada Investment Consultant, Kwabo Techniek, OKS, Orana, Kantana Posproduction, Trung Nguyen Corporation, Southern Airport Transportation Joint Stock Company (Satsco), Vinamit Joint Stock Company, Perfect Resource (HongKong), Inspire Venture (Thailand), VietHan Corp (Korea), American Eye Center (America), Cognita Group (Singapore), Moxdeal, Alliance Minerals (India), Active Power (Australia), VINX (Japan), Mermaid Maritime (Denmark), Techdata Vina (Korea), Total Floor Covering (Netherlands), JC Resource (Korea), CashWagon, Lendtech (Russia), SPG, Alliance (India), Nice Group, HarveyNash, etc.
